

THE INNOCENCE PROJECT OF TEXAS QUESTIONNAIRE

Waiver

The Innocence Project of Texas is preparing to commence a preliminary review into your case. However, before we can begin, we must make sure that you understand that our willingness to conduct a review does not establish an attorney-client relationship between you and Jeff Blackburn, Nicholas Vilbas, Jennifer Mirll, or any student, staff member, or attorney conducting an investigation. Accordingly, Jeff Blackburn, Nicholas Vilbas, Jennifer Mirll, or any student, staff member, or attorney conducting an investigation in your case is not agreeing to serve as your attorney at this time.

By signing this waiver you agree to allow The Innocence Project of Texas to contact any and all attorneys connected with your case. Furthermore, you are agreeing to allow these attorneys to release all information regarding your case to The Innocence Project of Texas. Also, you are agreeing to give The Innocence Project of Texas the right to use your name in its database, which may include publication on a network database accessible to other innocence programs across the state.

If you are willing to permit us to conduct an investigation based on the terms of the preceding paragraphs, then please sign and date a copy of this letter and return it to us.
